

SPML Infra bags orders worth Rs 7.72 bn

Source: IRIS (30-SEP-13)

SPML Infra has bagged new orders worth Rs 7.72 billion from Public Health Engineering Department (PHED) of Rajasthan and Bangalore Water Supply & Sewerage Board (BWSSB), Karnataka.

An order worth Rs 3.72 billion has been received from PHED, Jodhpur for water supply scheme for 256 villages and Bhinmal town of Jalore district with operation and maintenance for 10 years.

Another order worth Rs 2.34 billion has been received from PHED, Bharatpur for rural water supply scheme for 109 villages and other habitants in Karouli district with operation & maintenance for 10 years.

In addition, the company has bagged Rs 1.64 billion order from BWSSB, Bangalore for improvements of water distribution system, reduction in ufw & leakage control with 5 years of operation & maintenance.