

Source: IRIS (22-MAY-13)

SPML Infra bags orders worth Rs 4.88 bn

SPML Infra, one of India's leading infrastructure development company, received orders worth Rs 4.88 billion. The first order is worth Rs 3.96 billion for water infrastructure development work in Ratangarh-Sujangarh & Fatehpur-Laxmangarh in Churu district of Rajasthan. The construction period for this project is three years.

The second order is worth Rs 920 million has also been received from PHED, Jaipur is for development of water supply system for 92 villages along with other habitations of tehsil Laxmangarhof Sikar district in Rajasthan. The construction period for this project is two years, the company said.

Rishabh Sethi, executive director, SPML Infra, commented, "SPML has been developing modern infrastructure for drinking water supply, wastewater treatment and sewerage management for the past three decades in India and have a special connect with Rajasthan where we have developed a number of water infrastructure. The new order is an extension of our existing works, we are excited to receive this further order that will help us in building robust infrastructure in providing drinking water to almost half a million population of Churu district and over a lac population in Sikar district. It is a testimony of our capabilities in executing water management projects and the trust, our esteemed clients' places in us."