

SPML Infra receives 'Construction Week India Awards 2013

7 October 2013

SPML Infra, India's leading infrastructure development company, has received two prestigious awards during the Construction Week India Awards 2013 ceremony held in Mumbai. The awards presented to the company are 'Water Project of the Year' Award for the outstanding work to provide drinking water to more than a million people of 580 villages (177 in Jaisalmer and 403 in Barmer) together with 3 towns – Pokhran, Balotra and Siwana and also to cater the bulk water demands of Defence force and Industries of the area in the state of Rajasthan.

Besides, the company has also bagged the 'Corporate Social Responsibility' Award in recognition of its approach to make enduring social impact through programs that build sustainability. The third edition of Construction Week India Awards has 15 Award categories and more than 390 Infrastructure and Real Estate companies across India. The winners were chosen by a 15 member jury comprising of dignitaries and stalwarts from the infrastructure sector.

SPML Infra is a single source solution provider for various multi-disciplinary engineering and infrastructure services from conceptualization to maintenance in water, power, environment and infrastructure projects.