SPML Infra bags orders worth ₹1,802 crore

Infrastructure development firm SPML Infra said it has won new orders worth ₹1,802 crore from Bihar and Rajasthan for various works, including rural electrification and water supply. "SPML Infra has won new orders worth ₹1,802.10 crore from South Bihar Power Distribution (SBPDCL) of Bihar and Public Health Engineering Department (PHED) of Rajasthan," the company said in a statement. The two orders received from SBPDCL are for rural electrification projects in Patna and Gaya districts under Rajiv Gandhi Grameen Vidyutikaran Yojana, SPML Infra said. The three orders bagged from Public Health Engineering Department of Kota, Ajmer and Bharatpur, for water supply schemes will benefit more than 445 villages in Jhalawar, Ajmer and Bharatpur districts.
