MD, SPML INFRA & SPML GROUP COMPANIES

Commitment: At SPML, we have developed a culture of commitment to excellence and integrity. As an engineering and project management company, we have to execute to win projects. Execution involves every employee's contribution. The sustainable infrastructure we have created has touched the lives of millions of people across the country.

Responsibilities: We are fortunate to have competent and dedicated people with commitments that go well beyond creating value. We have people who walk the talk and deliver on promises. I have delegated most of the responsibilities to the team headed by our dynamic COO and only look into future and strategic plans with goals that will make a difference for the company and to sustain competitive advantage.

Creativity: For a company to be great, the employee must have the ability to consistently deliver good results. At SPML, we believe that the whole is greater than the sum of the parts and our team is responsive and complements each other. We not only create limitless growth potential for SPML, we also make significant contributions with sustainable urban infrastructure development for our generation and for the generations to come.

Integrity: SPML has a solid foundation of integrity, values that inspire us to act with honesty. Good governance with a common set of rules is essential to effective management. Our commitment to acting ethically is not just a core part of our custom; we know that it is the right thing to do and good for our business.

Sethi's leadership has led SPML emerge as an infrastructure company with interests in water & wastewater, power T&D, roads & highways, etc. SPML has executed almost 600 turnkey projects.
