NEW DELHI: The construction service company SPML Infra Limited has bagged two prestigious awards at the fourth KPMG Infrastructure award ceremony. Dr Montek Singh Ahluwalia, Deputy Chairman of Planning Commission, presented the awards in the presence many high profile dignitaries here in the city.

The jury members, comprising government officials, large private sector people, ASAPP Media and KPMG, selected SPML Infra for this coveted recognition after conducting a detailed research, technical capacity, financial track record, peer respect and its social impact. Some other companies that were also in the fray include Adani Power, Tata Group, Larsen & Toubro, Power Finance Corporation, GMR Infrastructure, IDFC, IDBI and the Gujarat Infrastructure Development Board. The company has also fetched PPP Project of the Year award for its contribution in Aurangabad Water Supply Project.

“The philosophy of the awards is to recognize stakeholders who have used an innovative and collaborative approach for successful project development and implementation and are perceived by the peer community as such,” said Arvind Mahajan, Executive Director, KPMG Advisory Services Pvt. Ltd, on the occasion.
