Mr. Subhash Sethi, Chairman, SPML Infra, commented, "We are very happy and proud that SPML Infra has been a trusted partner in this mega irrigation project in Gujarat. We have earlier completed the Phase 1 of this project that was also inaugurated by the Hon'ble Prime Minister. We are confident that our executed works in Phase 1 and Phase 2 will help us in execution of further part of the project. With this engineering marvel, Government of Gujarat will be able to provide irrigation and drinking water facilities to millions of people across Saurashtra-Kutch region. The adequate supply of water for irrigation will result in good crop yields for farmers and attracting industries in the region. The drinking water supply will solve the water scarcity problem and improve quality of life of millions of people across the region. We thank Government of Gujarat for the remarkable achievement and assure them of our best services for the future projects".
